

Arrow

Arrows stand for action and moving forward, so this symbol shows you hope to do a lot to change the world.

Bee

Bees symbolize hard work and industry. This symbol could show that you want to work hard and inspire others.

Bluebird

Bluebirds stand for happiness and good fortune. Choosing a bluebird crest says you want to spread good cheer wherever you go.

Carnation

The carnation stands for health and energy. Sounds like the right symbol for friends who have tons of energy to make the world a better place!

Crane

The crane stands for honor and loyalty in Japan and strength and gracefulness in China. This crest shows you want to live with strength and grace, remaining true to your friends and values.

Eagle

The eagle's excellent sight helps it to see important details. With this crest, you show that you want to bring focus and hard work to whatever you do.

Lei

The Hawaiian lei is a symbol of friendship, love, and peace. Choose it to share your wish to spread peace and goodwill in the world.

Lightning

A bolt of lightning stands for inspiration and creative power. This symbol might be chosen by someone who seeks inspiration in her own life and hopes to inspire others.

Nautilus Shell

The nautilus grows into larger chambers throughout its life. And there's a secret inside the shell. It's lined with mother-of-pearl. This symbol could show that you want to keep growing and changing inside and out.

Pansy

Pansies stand for loving thoughts and special friendships. This symbol could show the bonds you have with all your Girl Scout sisters.

Shooting Star

Shooting stars are rare, unexpected, and beautiful! Choosing this symbol shows that you are like a shooting star - a special girl who lights up the world.

Sun

The sun represents warmth and life, and it helps plants and trees grow strong. Choose this crest to show that you want to spread good cheer and help yourself and other grow.

Trumpet

When a trumpet sounds, it announces that you're ready to march into action. You might choose this symbol to remind yourself of your courage to take action to make the world better.

Unicorn

Unicorns are beautiful and courageous mythical creatures. With this symbol, you show you have courage to spread beauty with words and actions.

Waterfall

A waterfall is always in motion - but it always looks the same! Choosing this crest shows you want to stay true to what you believe even though the world is always changing.

White Rose

The white rose stands for new beginnings. It's a wonderful symbol for girls who are starting out on an adventure.